

Gretchen, The Fisherman

I've had a cat for as long as I can remember. Her name is Gretchen. ~~she's~~ she's 12 years old, and she loves to sit in front of my aquarium and watch the fish. This never really bothered me until today. What was different about Today you ask?

Well, today she decided she was ~~was~~ going to catch 1 of the fish in my aquarium. I caught her on top of the tank reaching down with one little paw and trying to snag one of prize fish. Let me tell you...those fish were going Crazy! But that didn't bother gretchen. She was swinging that little arm and chasing after any fish that got near. I'll bet you're wondering what I did next.

91 After getting over my initial shock of seeing my cat fishing in my aquarium, I grabbed her up and took her straight onto the bath room to get a towel. Have you ever tried to dry a wet cat? It was like trying to dry a tornado. And when I was finished, she didn't come around me for a long time. but the best part is...I never found her fishing in my again aquarium.
